Amy Yovanovich & Christyan Seay

We are delighted to kick off the 2019 - 2020 Music, Art & Drama season with a combined performance by superbly talented soloists

Amy Yovanovich and Christyan Seay.

Ms. Yovanovich, multiple award-winning Mezzo-Soprano, studied voice and opera at the Pennsylvania Academy of Music and has performed in numerous regional operas and musicals. Amy is currently the executive director and vocal instructor at the State Street Academy of Music in Harrisburg, serves as a vocal instructor at the Lancaster Conservatory of Music, and is Director of Music at Westgate Baptist Church, Lancaster.

Mr. Seay, Tenor, studied voice with the late Dr. Thomas Houser (New Holland, PA) and Dr. Anthony Leach (State College, PA). Active in recital, oratorio and opera, Christyan performs extensively throughout central PA and abroad and has performed with several orchestras and opera companies in the region including Harrisburg, Lancaster, Philadelphia and Baltimore. He is a three-time recipient of the Jump Street Arts Development Center/Pennsylvania Partners in the Arts grant award for which he has coordinated musical presentations. Mr. Seay currently serves as Artistic Director for the Capital Area Music Association (CAMA) and is a concert artist with the Wednesday Club Performing Arts Society, Harrisburg.

Popcorn Hat Players Children's Theatre

Popcorn Hat Players (PHP) from the Gamut Theater Group has been entertaining children and their families since 1993, bringing fairy tales, folk tales and fables to new audiences every year. Using creative comedy and improvisation, the Players write original adaptations and breathe new life into unforgettable stories. Consistently named "Simply the Best" Children's Entertainment by the readers of Harrisburg Magazine, it was the only arts group named in the "Top Ten Most Innovative Non-Profits in Central Pennsylvania", as determined by Central PA Business Journal, for its ground-breaking Theatre Alive! program in the inner-city schools.

Bring your family for a fun evening of whimsy and wonder guaranteed to entertain children of all ages!

Silver, Wood & Ivory

This two-person orchestra features the musical inspirations of Tracy Dietrich (the "silver and wood") and Cindy Wittenberg (the "ivory"). Both are classically trained artists whose performances showcase their musical inspirations which weave a tapestry of music that stirs the soul. Tracy and Cindy both have instrumental performance degrees - Tracy's from Indiana University and Cindy's from Elizabethtown College and Peabody Conservatory. Their program features a variety of instruments including many different flutes, recorders and piano. Whether it's a familiar song that recalls memories or a new melody that creates a sense of calm, this duo has created a body of work sure to please.

Please join us for this celestial musical journey!

The New Cumberland Town Band

In 1946, the band began as the New Cumberland American Legion Post 143 Band. In the early 1950s, it became an independent self-supporting ensemble which has been delighting its audiences ever since. This 50+ member band, currently under the direction of Conductor John Bugosh, is most active in the summer months and entertains at a variety of local venues on the East and West Shores for community events, nursing homes, parades and church picnics, as well as at their regular public concerts. They also present an annual Christmas concert, co-sponsored by the New Cumberland Olde Towne Association, at Trinity United Methodist Church in New Cumberland.

For more than 40 years, Camp Hill Presbyterian Church has offered the Music, Art & Drama Series to the Greater Harrisburg Area and surrounding communities and we are very pleased to be able to do so again this season. These programs would not be possible without your generous support and contributions. We extend our deepest thanks to you for making this season of events possible and hope that, through these programs, you are enriched and uplifted. May God bless you this day and always.
