Seventh Sunday of Easter

10:30 a.m.

Devoted to Christ — Committed to Service

We at Camp Hill Presbyterian Church are devoted followers of Jesus Christ committed to service in His name through worship, study, prayer, and praise; through mission to the world near and far; and through ministries of care and comfort to all.

Seventh Sunday of Easter

May 16, 2021

10:30 a.m.

The Rev. Nancy A. Conklin, Pastor
Jerrold D. Tidwell, Organist

Prelude Simple Gifts Arr. Virgil Fox
"When true simplicity is gained, to bow and to bend we will not be ashamed."

Welcome

Moment for Stewardship: Mission Outreach Ministry Rick Woodard

Choral Introit Let All the World in Every Corner Sing Eric Routley
*"Let all the world, in every corner sing: My God and King!
The heavens are not too high, God's praise may thither fly;
The earth is not too low, God's praises there may grow."*

Call to Worship (from Psalm 19)

L: God has made this day,

P: Let us rejoice and be glad in it.

L: The God who raised Jesus Christ from the dead raises us to new life daily.

P: Glory be to God, our Creator; to Jesus, our risen Christ; and to the Spirit, our Comfort.

L: Let us worship God!

Hymn 637 O Sing to the Lord

Call to Confession/Silent Personal Confession

In all humility and faith let us confess our sin and the sin of our world before God and one another, first in silence and then with one voice with our common prayer of confession.

Prayer of Confession

God of life and death, we confess that sometimes we are not alive to the possibilities you offer. In the midst of pain, unfairness, and fear, we find little reason for hope. We feel despair or blame others, but we do not turn to you for help. Forgive us and show us how to share the new life you offer, through Jesus Christ. Amen.

Assurance of Forgiveness

For all who have come believing Christ is the Way, there is forgiveness of our sins and the guarantee of eternal life. Let us then continue our journey of faith and obedience, through the grace of Jesus Christ. Thanks be to God!

Gloria Patri

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be; world without end.
Amen, Amen.*

First Scripture Reading

Isaiah 58:6-12

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the Lord will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am. If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. The Lord will guide you continually, and satisfy your needs in parched places, and make your bones strong; and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water, whose waters never fail. Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

L: This is the word of the Lord.

P: Thanks be to God.

Second Scripture Reading

1 Thessalonians 4:9-12

Now concerning love of the brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anyone write to you, for you yourselves have been taught by God to love one another; and indeed you do love all the brothers and sisters throughout Macedonia. But we urge you, beloved, to do so more and more, to aspire to live quietly, to mind your own affairs, and to work with your hands, as we directed you, so that you may behave properly toward outsiders and be dependent on no one.

L: This is the word of the Lord.

P: Thanks be to God.

Hymn 721

Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore

Offering

Anthem

Hymn of Promise

Natalie Sleeth

*“In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
in cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

*There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;
there's a dawn in every darkness bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery,
unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

*In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity;
in our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity.
In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory,
unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.”*

Prayer of Dedication

We dedicate our lives and all that we have to the work of life, of love, of peace. Receive our gifts and lead us in wisdom and courage. Amen.

Prayers of the People/The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
